

Class Announcements

1) Next Topic: Differential Equations

Notes WILL NOT be posted for this topic. You must come to class to get the material. The topic will be covered in exam #3. Come join the 20 or so regulars who have made the connection between showing up and learning.

2) Proposals are still sitting in my office. You must pick yours up, discuss it and get it signed by me. Submitting a signed proposal with your project is worth 10% of the project points. You will continue to get homework assignments through the end of the semester.

3) Class on Monday, 4/15 is cancelled due to travel. Homework for that week will be turned in on Wednesday 4/17.
